What is a Crime of Moral Turpitude, and why should I care?

This part seminar will be an open discussion on the immigration consequences when representing foreign nationals in negotiating plea bargains.

Practice Pointers in Representing Foreign Nationals in Criminal Matters.

During the last part of this seminar we will discuss issues surrounding the representation of foreign nationals in high profile criminal issues that cross international borders; dealing and cooperating with foreign countries; jury selection; translators; and how your naturalized client could possibly lose his Citizenship depending on your representation.
