Seminar Information

This full day seminar will address important current developments in labor and employment this year. The seminar will include an update on legislative changes and proposals, recent case law developments as well as practical trial and practice tips and insights from experienced labor and employment practitioners. "Jury Trials under the Missouri Human Rights Act" and "Ethics Issues in Employment Litigation" are presented from both plaintiff and defense perspectives. Our distinguished panel of speakers will ensure a stimulating and lively day of labor and employment legal education.
