KCMBA President Announces Resignation of the Association's Executive Director

KCMBA President Tom Bender announced today that the Association's Executive Director, Bob Thomas, has submitted his resignation from that position to pursue new professional opportunities. "Bob has been with us as we made some significant transitions in our Association. We have completed a significant capital campaign, and moved into a new headquarters, at the same time undergoing a complete restructuring of our staff and the continued development of our new strategic plan. We are now well-positioned to continue our work toward a dynamic future. We thank Bob for his efforts and wish him the best of luck with his new plans."

The Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association serves approximately 5,000 members in the nine-county Kansas City metro area: Johnson and Wyandotte counties in Kansas and Cass, Clay, Jackson, Johnson, Lafayette, Platte and Ray counties in Missouri. The mission of this Association is to serve our members and our community by promoting justice, professional excellence and respect for the law.
